Ghana Domain Name Registry

Dear Sir/Madam,

REGISTRAR EXPRESSION OF INTEREST FORM (EOI)

This is to express our interest and qualifications to become a registrar for the .gh ccTLD.

GODI AFRICA LIMITED is a Ghanaian-owned limited liability company that provides modern solutions in Innovative Technology and Telecommunications. Our well-diversified portfolio covers the areas of Information Communication Technology, Telecommunication, Project Management, and Human Capacity Enhancement. We hold four business units in both industrial and consumer businesses, all of which focus on serving clients and communities with the latest technology that enhances their business and lifestyle. These are ICT Solutions (which include web technologies), Infrastructure Delivery, Training and Capacity Building, and Project Management. Our goal is to create value for clients, our teams, and shareholders. We work to serve our clients with the finest quality built on a strong culture of consistency, loyalty, and high ethical standards.

GODI AFRICA is capable and meets the requirements and policies of the .gh ccTLD authority and shall adhere to the rules and regulations of the .gh ccTLD authority, as well as the industry standards and best practices set by the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN) and other relevant organizations. We also respect and uphold the rights and interests of the .gh ccTLD and its registrants and cooperate with the ccTLD authority in any matters related to the administration and management of the ccTLD.

We shall provide excellent customer support to our clients, both before and after the sale. We have a dedicated and friendly team of customer service representatives who are available via phone, email, and chat. We also have a comprehensive and user-friendly website that offers online tools, resources, and FAQs to help our clients with their domain name needs.

We also have an internal dispute resolution procedure that aims to resolve any issues or concerns that our clients may have with our services in a timely and fair manner.

We are confident that GODI AFRICA can provide a valuable and reliable service to the .gh ccTLD and its registrants. We have a strong market presence and reputation in Ghana, and we are eager to expand our business and reach the .gh ccTLD market. We offer competitive and transparent pricing, as well as innovative and customized solutions to meet the diverse and evolving needs of our clients.

We are committed to becoming a registrar for the .gh ccTLD and looking forward to a favorable response.

Thank you for your consideration and attention.

Sincerely,

Richard Kafui Amanfu
